

U.S. Agrees With Allies That Germany Must Pay To The Limit Of Her Ability

STILLMAN MUST PAY ALIMONY IN 30 DAYS

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., April 4.—Justice Morschauser in supreme court here today signed an order directing that payment of alimony and counsel fees in the divorce proceedings brought by James A. Stillman, New York banker, against Miss Ann U. Stillman, be made within thirty days, and that meanwhile referee hearings in the case be stayed.

Counsel for both sides agreed that sealed papers in the case, including letters, said to have been written to Mrs. Stillman by Fred Beauvais, Indian guide, named as co-respondent, and the alleged "confession letter" of Mrs. Stillman to her husband, should not be opened when they are filed in the Putnam county court house at Carmel.

The order provides that no further hearings be held before the referee until Mr. Stillman has paid to his wife $15,000 alimony for March and April; counsel fees of $25,000, and $12,500 for expenses.

The entire amount is to be paid in thirty days.

Counsel for Mr. Stillman announced that an appeal would be taken to the supreme court in Brooklyn today against Justice Morschauser's decision last week in expunging from the record the letters said to have been written by Mrs. Stillman and the Indian guide.

The letter from Mrs. Stillman to her husband was buried from the proceedings on the ground that it was confidential between man and wife, and therefore privileged. Letters alleged to have been written by the guide were buried on the ground that they were presented with an affidavit by Mr. Stillman, who was not qualified to testify in this case. The court indicated that the Beauvais letter would be admissible if presented with affidavits by some one else than the plaintiff.

Parliament To Act To Meet Coal Strike Emergency

LONDON, April 4.—Regulations to meet the emergency brought about by the strike of coal miners in Great Britain were discussed by both houses of parliament here today. Prime Minister Lloyd George, who called a meeting of the cabinet for early this morning, was expected to go before the house of commons and endorse the announcement made on Saturday by Sir Robert Stevenson Horne, chancellor of the exchequer, that the government would refuse to yield on the point of subsidizing the miners' wages.

Members of the labor party also entered today to discuss the situation and it seemed probable that some action would be taken which would forestall the attitude of the National Union of Railway Men and the Transport Workers' Union at their conference on Wednesday.

Indications were seen today that it was probable the two great unions would support the miners in their demands. It was pointed out that resolutions to the effect were passed by a score of London and provincial council meetings of the railroad workers' organization on Sunday, although the vote was not in all cases unanimous.

33 Killed In Rail Crash In Mexico

PRINCE ANDREAS OF GREECE KILLED IN BATTLE

LONDON, April 4.—Prince Andreas, of Greece, brother of King Constantine, has died from wounds received in fighting near Brusa, says a Constantinople dispatch to the Evening News, quoting a Turkish announcement. The Turks also assert that General Vlachopoulos, who was in command of the Greek attack against the Turkish Nationalists on the Brusa front, has been killed in action.

Prince Andreas, of Greece, was the third son of the late King George. He was born in Athens on January 29, 1882, and served in the Greek army during the Balkan war of 1912. Following the flight of King Constantine from Greece in 1917, it was reported he aspired to the throne, but this move was reported to have been blocked by Mr. Venizelos, then premier of Greece. Following the return to Athens, of Constantine, Prince Andreas was appointed a general in the Greek army and last month was said to be in command of a division at the front. He was married to Princess Alice of Battenberg on October 7, 1903.

Claims U. S. Has Understanding With British

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 4.—Assertion that the war department last year refused to permit the printing of several hundred copies of the Declaration of Independence because "it would be an act of discourtesy to our friends the British," is made by Representative Kelly of Pennsylvania, in a forthcoming book, The Community Capital. An advance copy of the volume was made public in a statement here today by Frank T. Walsh, counsel for the "republican of Ireland."

Mr. Kelly further states, according to Mr. Walsh, that the department's alleged refusal to permit the printing of the Declaration of Independence was because in the inflated state of public mind such a publication might increase social unrest and the "tendency to Bolshevism."

Mr. Walsh declared in his statement that the alleged action of the war department "furnishes one illuminating example of the suppression of the Declaration of Independence by the American government through an understanding with the British government."

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 4.—Great Britain's drink bill increased by more than $400,000,000 last year as compared with 1919, says a report to the department of commerce from Consul Hunter Sharp at Edinburgh, Scotland.

The amount spent on intoxicating liquors in the United Kingdom in 1920, the consul says, is estimated at $2,383,735,000, as against $1,878,403,000 in 1919. The total, however, is about 24 percent less than before the war.

Eight of the forty were to bring delegations with them to pay respects to the chief executive and one of the eight delegations numbered 45 persons.

$30,000,000 Bonus Issue In Michigan

DETROIT, MICH., April 4.—Michigan voters today were passing upon a proposal to bond the state for $30,000,000 for a soldier, sailors and nurses bonus and electing minor state officers, including justices of the supreme court, superintendent of education and regents of the state university.

In Detroit the bonus proposal stirred interest with two street railway proposals, one was that the city supervise operation of all traction lines on a service at cost basis, guaranteeing owners of the private system a return of six percent and the other, that the street railway commission be authorized to purchase a part of the private system which would be added to the municipal system.

VIENNA, April 4.—The Austrian cabinet has notified the Hungarian government that unless an early hour is set for the certain departure of Ex-Emperor Charles, the Austrian government will cancel his safe conduct. This notification has evoked a promise from Hungary that Charles would leave that country within forty-eight hours from Sunday night.

Both government and diplomatic circles have been puzzled over the continued stay of the ex-ruler at Steinmanner, over the Hungarian frontier.

It is known that preparations for his departure yesterday had progressed even to the point where the schedule of his special train had been arranged and that all the details had been completed, including the selection of the men who were to accompany him.

While Republicans here are maintaining an attitude of great restraint and not giving voice to violent utterances or threats, nevertheless the feeling among them has been growing. In today's issue, Der Morgen declared it would be hard to check a revolution in Austria if the ex-king remained on Hungarian soil much longer.

The cabinet was called in special session yesterday to prepare the ultimatum to Hungary, and set until late at night engaged in this task. Diplomatic circles do not credit the reports from Steinmanner by way of Budapest that the former ruler has been declared ill by an English physician, the information in these circles being that he is as well as ever, and walking at intervals about gardens of Bishop Miklos' palace, where he is stopping.

The steady influx of Hungarian nobles and former officers is continuing at Steinmanner, and there are reports that royalist demonstrations are being planned there.

Police Seek Alibi For Confessed Murderer

CLEVELAND, O., April 4.—A suspect under arrest here since last Thursday insists that he is the murderer of Miss Louise Wolf and Mabel Foote, Parma high school teachers, February 16, last. Despite attempts by the police to disprove his alleged confession, the man, whom police say is a mental defective, with the brains of a four year old child, clings to his confession.

The prisoner will be taken to the scene of the crime again today for tests, which police believe, will determine the truth of his story. Aliquists, who have examined him, told the police they were convinced that if he did not kill the teachers, he at least saw their bodies at the time of the slaying.

Chief of Police Smith has ordered that every effort be made to find evidence to refute the man's confession and establish an alibi for him.

Relatives of the suspect say his confession is the result of his mental weakness and deny that he committed the crime.

HUGHES GIVES U. S. STAND IN NOTETOBERLIN GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 4.—Formal statement of the attitude of the United States as to German reparations is contained in an exchange of communications with German government officials, made public today by the state department. They are in the form of memoranda transmitted through Loring Dressed, American high commissioner at Berlin.

The German communication, dated March 23, was written by Dr. Walter Simons, German foreign minister, and asserted it was "entirely clear" both to the government and people that Germany "must make reparations to the limit of her ability to pay," but sought "examination by unbiased experts" to determine the extent of her ability.

In his reply, Dated March 29, Secretary Hughes expressed pleasure at Germany's "unequivocal expression" of its desire to pay to the limit of ability and declared the United States "stands with the governments of the allies in holding Germany responsible for the war and therefore morally bound to make reparations, so far as may be possible."

"This government," Secretary Hughes' memorandum said, "believes that it recognizes in the memorandum of Dr. Simons a sincere desire on the part of the German government to reopen negotiations with the allies on a new basis and hopes that such negotiations, once resumed, may lead to a prompt settlement, which will at the same time satisfy the just claims of the allies and permit Germany hopefully to renew its productive activities."

Y. W. C. A. DRIVE OPENS AUSPICIOUSLY

The membership campaign for the Young Women's Christian Association started in earnest today, the board of directors taking up work in whirlwind style.

The drive for members this year will be taken care of by the board, who will not ask how many memberships a person will take but instead will sell shares of interest in the organization and institution. Mrs. E. L. Gates of Cincinnati, field secretary, is here to lend her assistance in the campaign which will continue all month.

The drive will decide whether the Y. W. is to remain in Portsmouth. It all depends on the help given by the girls and women of Portsmouth as the business men have come through and put the Y. W. on its feet by giving sufficient money to pay off a deficit in the general fund.

Monday morning at the regular meeting of the Ministerial Association the ministers heartily endorsed the drive and working program as explained by Mrs. E. L. Gates of Cincinnati. Next Sunday each minister is to give part of the time usually given to the regular sermon to remarks on the Y. W. They will review the work the splendid local institution has accomplished here and why it should be given all help possible.

The Association also heartily endorsed the Y. M. C. A. and expressed the belief that the time was ripe for this city to acquire an institution of this character.

8 SHEET MILLS PLACED IN OPERATION; OTHER DEPARTMENTS RESUME TUESDAY

As per schedule eight sheet mills resumed operation in the Whitaker-Glessner plant this morning at 8 o'clock after being idle some time. The hum of the mills was sweet music to the cars of the hundreds of employees. At the offices of the company it was stated that the mills will run indefinitely.

At 6 a. m. Tuesday the cold rolling, annealing and pickling departments will resume operation.

The galvanizing, jobbing mills and four open hearth furnaces are also being operated.

The big plant after Tuesday will be operated on a 40 per cent basis and this may soon be increased to 50 per cent with the resumption of many of the biggest automobile plants in the country the demand for steel will be materially increased.

VOTE FOR MEN WHO HAVE RESPECT FOR THEIR OATH OF OFFICE, SAYS REV. OAKLEY

Based on his remarks on the Apostle Paul's letter to Timothy wherein the apostle to the Gentiles said: "The love of money is the root of all kinds of evil," Rev. Charles R. Oakley, pastor of the First Christian church, went after those responsible for the curtailment of the Sunday closing order, Sunday evening, before a capacity audience. He did not mince words, nor did he use kid gloves in the handling of the question. While he fired several broad-shots at the local authorities, he opened his batteries on the church members who were in a measure, he said, responsible for the "open shop" on Sunday.

He strongly advocated a tightening of the Sunday purse strings on the part of church members, and incidentally advocated the election of men to office who would see that the laws of the land were enforced.

He said in part: "It is not lust, nor appetite nor pleasure—but the love of money that is the root of all kinds of evil—the grabbing of the opportunity to make money by taking advantage of the laws of God and man."

"For five months we have had a closed Sunday. In spite of the fact that the mayor issued the closing order contrary to his own belief, we have had a sane observance of the Lord's Day. And now, we see the Mayor gives orders to open the town on Sundays. Why? Because certain business men who had formerly commercialized the Lord's Day see the season for profit coming and are afraid they will miss a few pennies and dimes that used to come their way. The Mayor has become restless that the condition that has existed for the past five months might obtain through the season."

"These five months have demonstrated that we can get along without Sunday grocery stores, ice cream parlors and cigar stores. Friday, it is the love of money that is back of the opening order—for the love of money, business men are willing to nullify the laws of God and man. While the opening order has gone forth, I believe the experience desired in a closed Sunday so people will be forced to church. This is a base falsehood. I wouldn't force anyone to attend church. If you don't want to come to church, stay at home. The Sunday observance laws have put on the statute books that man might hold sacred the day of his ascension. Law was made to curb man—those who do not want to honor God. Law was made for the good, but for those who would over-ride you in your desire to worship."

"The Sunday closing laws are on the statute books, and the mayor, chief of police, safety director and sheriff have taken oath to uphold the law. When they wink their eyes at the law they are swallowing their oath and their eye because they think the public will applaud. Mayor Gableman has said that when 700 members of this church unanimously ratified a resolution to keep the city closed on Sunday, we didn't mean it. The fact of the matter is the mayor thinks we have good 'forgetters' and knows election day is quite a while off."

"But, friends, we are not free from blame. There isn't a single business in the city that will keep open if church members do their part—for places are open not for accommodation, but for money and profit. I ask all of you to keep the Lord's Day pure and holy. Because places are open is no reason why you have to buy—that's not boycotting, that's good sense. And, friends, churchmen, should not forget those who kept their places of business closed. I glory in the decision of the drug store proprietors. Why shouldn't they have a day of rest? When they can go to church if they so desire? Let all Christians patronize those who are keeping inviolate the Lord's Day."

"Vote for men who have respect for their oath of office and who believe the laws on the statute book are put there to be enforced."

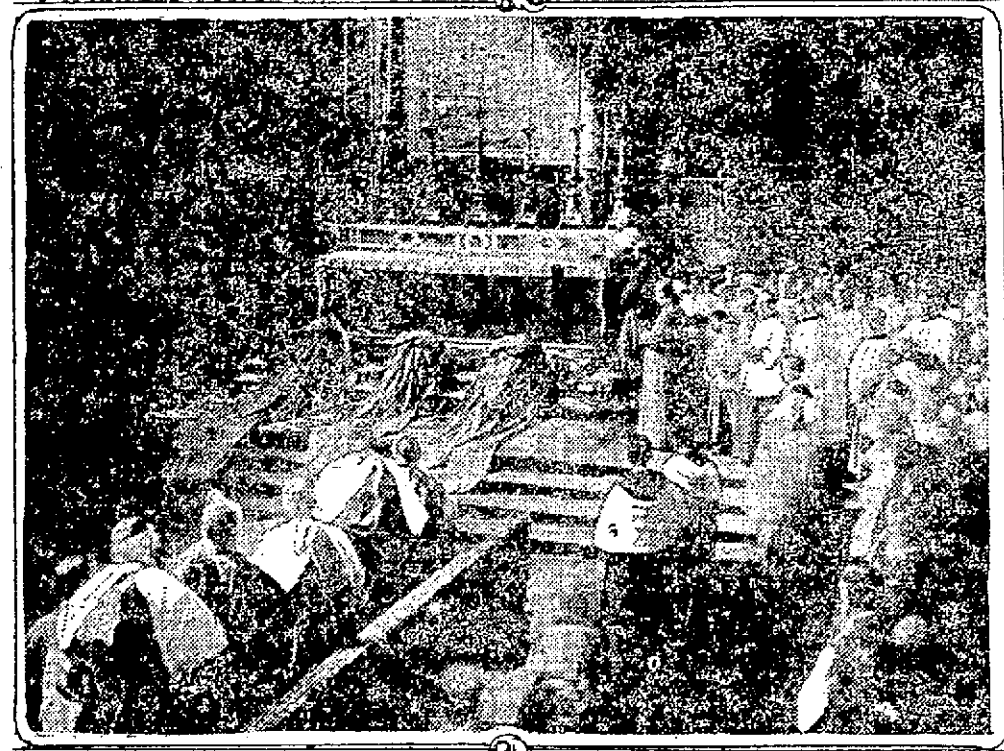

Spread Happiness.

When you rise in the morning, form a resolution to make the day a happy one to a fellow creature.—Sidney Smith.

Water Power Put to Good Use.

An interesting example of the development of water power is reported from Cashmere. There the Jhelum river has been made to generate electrical power to deepen its own channel, and so prevent the overflowing of 200,000 acres of land, which are thus made available for agriculture. The fact that no coal was available, and that the site was 200 miles from the nearest railway station, made the use of water power imperative in this case.

"The First Easter," full of inspiring music was sung by the splendid choir of Second Presbyterian church, Sunday evening to a capacity audience, the church being crowded to the doors.

Opening the service, Mrs. R. G. Gilmore sang the beautiful soprano solo, "The Silent Voice," with violin obbligato by Mrs. Russell Decker. The cantata was begun with the choral song, "Silent the Sleeping Town." This blended into the contralto solo, "In the Garden," by Mrs. C. E. Mouth Curves.

Study the sweep of a bow held in place by a cord. It adheres to the rule. "Curves are the lines of beauty." The curve, wherever found on the human body, is soft and tender. It seems to be the blending of countless curves. So it is with the mouth. I once heard the mouth of a cruel, gossiping woman described as being "like a slit in a stone wall." I thought the phrase a very apt one.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Catherine Mary Reinhart nee Moeller, born at Koebitz, Germany, December 4, 1840, died Sunday morning at eleven o'clock at the Home for aged women, where she had made her home for several years. Death was caused by bronchial asthma after a week's illness. Her condition took a change for the worse Wednesday last.

Mrs. Reinhart came to America in 1868, settling at Waverly, O., where she was married to Mr. P. Biel. After his death she was united in marriage to Frederick Daniel Reinhart on April 10, 1870. To them were born six children of whom five preceded their mother in death, the only surviving child being Mrs. John Redden of this city. Mr. Reinhart died August 7, 1904. At the time of her death Mrs. Reinhart was 80 years, two months and twenty-nine days of age. Many years ago Mr. and Mrs. Reinhart united with the Methodist church at Waverly and twelve years ago on coming to this city she transferred her membership to Franklin Avenue M. E. church, where she had been a regular attendant at the church services as much as her physical strength would permit.

Funeral services were held at three o'clock this Monday afternoon at the Home with Rev. C. E. Severinghaus pastor of Franklin Avenue M. E. church in charge of the last rites. The body will be taken to Waverly Tuesday morning, burial to be in the cemetery there.

Burial At Rushtown

The body of Mrs. Catherine Allen, 71, former Scioto county resident, who died Friday, April 1st, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Crabtree, of Wellsburg, W. Va., arrived at Lucasville Sunday and was taken to the home of her brother, Thomas Henry, of Duck Run. Funeral services were held this Monday afternoon, with burial at Rushtown.

Fire Visits East End Grocery

An estimated loss of $350 was caused by a fire shortly after one o'clock Monday morning at the grocery store conducted by J. H. Green in the Italy Block, 1227 Gallia street.

The blaze was burning briskly when discovered by John H. Lewis, news night watchman in the district, and the companies from two fire stations made hurried runs in responding to an alarm turned in by him. The firemen succeeded in confining the loss to the stock, the building being but slightly damaged.

An investigation disclosed that the fire probably originated from misplaced matches stored in the place.

RARDEN

RARDEN, April 4.—The date for the presentation of the playlet, entitled "The Bug Hunter," has been changed from April 16 to April 23, on account of rehearsals having been retarded by the smallpox epidemic. The playlet which is a rollicking comedy-drama, in three acts and full of fun from curtain to curtain, will be staged at the Red Men's Hall under the management of Walter Scott by home talent, with Philip Reinhold in the leading role and supported by a strong cast of local players, including Everett Bleckman, Robert Clark, Leroy Wilkoff, Gene Penn, Misses Lucile Newman, Gladys Newman and Henrietta Bleckman, the latter appearing as "The Girl of Troubles."

Rehearsals are progressing splendidly and from all indications a packed house will greet the players and witness the performance. Black face sketches will feature between acts and the program will be interspersed with orchestra music.

A small admission will be charged to cover expenses and all the surplus will be donated to the churches.

The quarantine regulations put into effect because of the smallpox epidemic which raged here for several weeks has been lifted by the health authorities which has resulted in business in the village again becoming normal.

Feel Old?

Overwork, worry, anxiety or sorrow undermines strength and health. These causes contribute to kidney trouble, and weak or diseased kidneys make one feel old in middle age.

Foley Kidney Pills

help weak, overworked or diseased kidneys and bladder so that the system is free from waste and poisonous matter that causes one to feel old, tired, languid. They banish backache, rheumatic pains, sore muscles, stiff joints.

Mrs. J. D. Miller, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "For many years I suffered with kidney trouble and rheumatism. I had a severe backache and felt miserable and all played out. I got to a place where I had to do something. After taking two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills I can say my backache is gone, and where I used to lay awake at night with rheumatic pains I can now sleep in comfort and enjoy a good night's rest."

Many Tons Of Coal Released

HUNTINGTON, April 4.—Both railway officials and coal operators attached considerable significance to permits received here yesterday clearing through the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway 60,000 tons of West Virginia coal. The clearing was contained in two permits, one for 40,000 and another for 20,000.

While comparatively small in itself, this action is seen to forestall the immediate opening of the lake trade, which will have a highly pleasing effect on West Virginia mine production.

April 4th to 9th The Style Week For The Home

It is not only the materials for curtains, it is not only the actual made up curtains which we offer you during Home Craft Week, but even more than that, it is a real interest in your personal window problems and a real desire to help with needs of your individual window draping difficulties that we offer you.

And remember, your window drapes are the only part of your home furnishings seen by the world at large—the world's only index to your personality.

That's what makes our Home Craft Week display so important to you.

TUSCAN NETS

Tuscan Nets are introduced this season in response to the call for a virile, for an essentially masculine curtaining for the windows of certain types of homes, particularly the modern bungalow, and for certain types of rooms, such as libraries, living-rooms, and all other dark wood finished rooms. Note the handsome effect of Tuscan Net as a cover for the Italian refectory table.

QUAKER SECTIONAL CRAFT-LACE

In Sectional Craft-Lace the design is heaviest where it should be heaviest—at the bottom of the window. And it is most transparent where transparency is demanded to give you a view of outdoors, being woven in complete nine-inch "repeats" Sectional Craft-Lace cuts without waste to fit any window.

CASEMENT CRAFT-LACE

There is an air about Quaker Casement Craft-Lace which gives this window an unusual appearance of loveliness impossible to gain by any other treatment.

SAMPLER LACE

The one problem of the Colonial room has been its proper decoration—the lack of a fabric essentially Colonial in spirit yet in keeping with the modern decorative trend. The ideal solution of this problem is found in Sampler Lace, an exquisite filet net showing quaint "sampler" figures and mottoes having that much desired home-spun look.

AMEREX NET

Amerex Net is the most delicate form of window lace and therefore ideal for vista windows where exceptional transparency is demanded in the window covering.

Nets priced from 40c to $2.50 per yard.

Curtains priced from $1.50 to $15.00 per pair.

Many other lines of draperies that help give the added appearance of home, such as velours cretonnes, tapestry, orinoko Sunfast Draperies, serims, marquisettes, chintz, etc.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "biliousness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 50c

MISS DOLLY WISE

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Miss Wise knows of a little seven-year-old girl who needs a home and mother's care, as her own mother is dead. The child would like to be placed in a respectable Christian family. Call 840 for name and address.

Dearest Dolly—I regard to that letter a few nights ago, about the beautiful kid. I wonder if I could play dolls with her. I am very good at that, and I maintain to say that I would like to see her personally at any time if she cares to meet me.

Very truly yours,
T. R. M.

Dear Miss Wise—If you are as kind as you are wise, it will be easy for you to forgive my encroaching on your time to ask a question. First let me explain: Roaming through the public library the other day, I came, in a remote corner of the balcony floor, upon a lot of old and obsolete volumes of medical literature, such as would be called junk in most any library. However, the librarian told me they are not the property of the library, but belong to a Medical Academy of this city. Now, the question I want to ask is—just how far is a library justified in housing such property as this, which does not belong to them, is perfectly useless as far as modern practice is concerned, and is taking up the room so badly needed as I find it in your library.

It is my habit to visit libraries wherever I go and I feel safe in saying in no other would such conditions prevail.

The librarian tells me room was not so scarce when the books were first housed, but it is now, and the question remains.

A. B. V.

The Hampstead Medical Academy has its rooms in the library, and it is very possible that they have a reason for keeping the old volumes for reference. If the trustees of the library do not want those books there, they certainly have the privilege of saying so, and of refusing to give them space.

It think it is up to the library to make other arrangements.

Dear Miss Wise—I noticed in Wednesday's Times where some young lady said in your column she would like to become a Christian but didn't want to join the church unless she knew Jesus wanted her.

Now Miss Wise I hope you will allow me space to express my thought. I think if she feels like joining the church it is the Spirit of Jesus Christ that calls her to that desire, and it is written "Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out, and again we read and the Spirit and the bride say come and let him that is athirst come, and whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely."

BILLY WILKERSON

FRANCES TREGG MONTGOMERY

"While Mr. West, Violet and Mammy were inspecting the fat stock and Mrs. West and her friend were sampling the preserves and pickles in the main building, which was decorated with wheat, corn, pumpkins and squash hung in artistic designs from the rafters, Billy and Nannie were driven to the grounds by a little darkey (Mammy's nephew) in a fancy Turkish costume to match the gaily caparisoned gouts that had red pompous sticking up between their ears to show off the red and black patent leather harness which they wore.

The boy drove them straight to the shed that had been reserved for them, where they remained until it was their turn to run in the races.

By the way, this fair was to have something new, something that had never before been attempted at a county fair. This was a race called "Go as you please," and anything hitched to anything could run in it. At a certain signal all were to start, and those failing to do so would not be waited for, but would be left behind, although they could follow if they wished.

In this race it was not always the one that got the best start that won, for frequently something would happen to those who started first and the late starters would pass them. This was where the fun for the spectators came in, and it caused a great deal of shouting and hand-clapping from the grandstand.

In today's entries were:

Billy and Nannie, hitched to a small goat-cart.

Six greyhounds, hitched to a little burrow.

One burro, hitched to a two-wheeled cart.

Two colts, hitched to a tiny sulky.

One shetland pony, hitched to a little basket phonograph.

When the audience read over the list some exclaimed: "What an unfair race, to put greyhounds with their long legs against shetland ponies, burros and goats." But the knowing ones only laughed and said: "Wait and see."

After Sambo had unhitched the goats, carried them down and given them a drink of water, he left them to rest until time for the race, and as nothing could be seen from the shed where they were, he left them and went to see what shape the other animals were in, especially he was to race against. He had quite forgot that he had been told not to let Billy

Your Manners

It Is Correct

For the hostess at a tea to relieve occasionally throughout the afternoon the ladies who pour tea for her.

For the ladies who pour the tea, coffee and chocolate for a friend at her tea, to serve the tea, direct the maids and to see that the dishes on the table are replenished.

When there are two maids in the dining room at a tea, for one to offer the guests, plates, napkins, etc., to inquire if they will be served, etc., and for the other to gather up the used dishes, napkins, etc., and refill the coffee and chocolate pots, etc.

For the hostess who cannot give one large tea in her home, to entertain her friends by holding a series of small teas.

For a maid to direct the feminine guests to a room where they may lay off their wraps for an informal tea.

It Is Not Correct

For a guest who is invited to one of a series of teas, to attend on any but the day given in the invitation.

For a lady pouring tea for a friend to neglect to inquire of each guest the amount of sugar, cream, etc. they wish, or to offer the cakes, sandwiches, etc.

For the feminine guests at even a small tea, to remove their hats unless the hostess invites them to do so.

For the daughters of the hostess entertaining at a tea to invite many young guests and devote much time to them to the neglect of the comfort of their mother's friends.

To serve less at an informal tea.

On Friday morning, at 10:30 the Presbyterian Church of the Sandy Springs Church gave a pleasant surprise to one of the members, Mrs. Jacob Hoobrig, the occasion being her eighty-fifth birthday anniversary. The ladies arrived with well-filled baskets for the feast that followed. Dinner was served at noon at a beautifully adorned table, the center of which was a fragrant cluster of roses and carnations, sent as a gift by her daughter, Mrs. Mollie Fox, of Cincinnati. Miss Onida Harris read a poem-prayer and Mrs. Bert Adams asked an appropriate blessing on the honored one.

One of the interesting diversions of the afternoon was the relating of original stories for which Mr. Junior Hoobrig received the prize.

The guests for the occasion were Mrs. Kate Ewing, Mrs. Sallie Norris, Mrs. Mary Thorp, Mrs. James Dewham, Mrs. Bert Adams of Vanceburg, Miss Onida and Stella Harris, Miss Mary Ewing, Miss Lucille Tracy, Miss Sallie Brown, Mr. Billie Sparks and Mr. Junior Hoobrig.

Cards and dancing were the principal amusements, after which refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee, were served.

All present enjoyed the evening very much and after wishing Mr. McCurley many more happy birthdays the following guests departed: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Curran, Messrs. Robert O'Connor and Robert Holbrook, Miss Carrie Herman, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sheets, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wilson and sons, Maxwell and Billie Dan, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson and daughter Virginia Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Ogle Burcham.

Miss Anna Rust of Grandview avenue entertained the H. H. Club Friday night in honor of Miss Catherine Ury, whose coming marriage to Mr. Frank Bobst was announced. The guests were invited to the dining room, attractively adorned with flowers, the center of the table displaying a miniature bride-and-groom. Tiny wedding bells were the favors at each place. These enjoying the delightful luncheon were Misses Elizabeth and Fontella Warman, Cecil Lockhart, Helen Crabtree, Reba Turton, Anna Bush and the honored bride-elect.

SURE WAY TO GET Rid Of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

Her Own Career

(BY PHYLLIS PHILLIPS)

THE BIG OFFER

Several weeks later, Gwendolyn received another letter from John stating that he had heard from the new editor of "The Star," that that paper was going to try to buy Vivian Miles from "The Daily News."

"Don't know whether you've met the dame, but if so, do you think our paper has a chance along those lines? What is she like? Hard as nails, I suppose. Must be, I guess, 'cause she's such a zippy worker and usually those women are almost masculine. I think that old Williams wanted to have her come over here and get some interviews with the women who are helping the reconstruction work along so splendidly. What a lark to have her accept and be my rival. Let her come. That's all I have to say. I'll give the lady a run for her money, or fame, rather."

Gwendolyn smiled as she read this, and again the white rose. What a joke on John, after all. What a lark if she should be asked to do this, and did go. Was she buyable? She shook her head, as she remembered just how much her paper had done for her and laughed at the mere thought of deserting the Big Chief at this point of the game.

"Inherited dad's loyalty, I reckon," said she to herself. "I've just got to stick through thick and thin, that's all there is to that."

"Booey" (for short) Williams, the new editor of "The Star," did make her an offer a few days later, with a regal salary attached, and was promptly turned down by Miss Gwendolyn.

From his office she returned to that of Sam Davis's and told him the news. That knowing man smiled and patted her on the back appreciatively as he listened.

"Know you were true blue all through, Miss Channing, but I guess your own paper can do as well by you as 'The Star.' How about taking up that little offer and representing us over there for a few months? Does it appeal to you? All expenses paid, of course, and your aforementioned salary."

Gwendolyn sat spellbound as she listened. Then being an unaccountable sort of a girl, she burst into tears. The chief smiled again, for he understood as no one else did, just what this offer of his meant to Gwendolyn.

"Now have it out, then look over and say 'yes,' if she admonished her, as she smiled and wept in unison. "I certainly have to thank Beady for putting a great idea into my head. Come now, Miss Channing, answer me."

And Gwendolyn did. She left the office that night on feet that seemed tipped with silver wings. She never remembered how she arrived at the studio, nor how she told her news to Fern. And it was only the sight of Beady, with his arms tightly round that young lady's waist that brought her back to her senses at all.

"We're engaged," announced Fern, simply radiant in her new-found happiness. "We're going to be married soon as possible. Now kiss us both."

"And how wonderful this news of yours is, Gwendolyn," said Beady as she stopped and kissed them both.

Dr. Simons' memorandum was a lengthy document going extensively into Germany's situation, and the state department announced that copies of both this communication and the American reply had been handed to diplomatic representatives of the allied powers in Berlin.

In his memorandum, Dr. Simons expressed the earnest desire of Germany to reach accord with the allied governments and the sincere purpose to meet requirements as far as possible.

"It is entirely clear," Dr. Simons said, "not only to the government of Germany, but to the German people, also, that Germany must make reparation to the limit of her ability to pay."

The minister added that Germany was ready to meet any proposal which appeared feasible for the solution of the economic and financial problems of Europe and sought examination by unbiased experts of her ability to pay.

"Germany believes," the memorandum said, "that a policy of duress and coercion will not bring about reconstruction of internal economic life and only by way of peaceful discussion and understanding can such reconstruction be obtained. The German government considers it important to give, with solemn emphasis, the assurance that for its part it is honestly willing to follow the path it has suggested."

Dr. Simons suggested that an international loan in favor of which the allied and associated governments constituted the only solution of the problem. He declared that Germany was prepared to offer the necessary security for such a loan, adding that it had been reiterated that the situation of Germany was better than that of many of the allied and associated countries, because she had no foreign debts.

"The American government is pleased to note in the informal memorandum of Dr. Simons the unequivocal expression on the part of the German government of its desire to afford reparation up to the limit of German ability to pay. This government stands with the governments of the allies in holding Germany responsible for the war and therefore morally bound to make reparation, so far as may be possible.

"The recognition of this obligation, implied in the memorandum of Dr. Simons, seems to the government of the United States the only sound basis on which can be built a firm and just peace under which the various nations of Europe can achieve once more economic independence and stability. This government believes that it recognizes in the memorandum of Dr. Simons a sincere desire on the part of the German government to reopen negotiations with the allies on a basis and hopes that such negotiations, once resumed, may lead to a prompt settlement, which will at the same time satisfy the just claims of the allies and permit Germany hopefully to renew its productive activity."

Gives Tanlac Credit For Splendid Health

T. J. PARKER

4246 Juneau Street, Seattle, Wash.

"I used to think all the Tanlac testimonials were exaggerated, but I have felt thankful a thousand times I ever believed in it strong enough to give the medicine a trial," said T. J. Parker, well-known salesman for Gately's Clothing Store, residing at 4246 Juneau St., Seattle, Wash.

"Well, a friend of mine finally got me to try Tanlac, and it certainly has done a good job for me. My appetite is fine now and although I am eating just anything I want and as much as I please, my stomach never gives me the least trouble. REMARKABLE FILM AT MANLY TONIGHT

Gerard White of the Methodist Book Concern at Cincinnati will be at Manly M. E. church, corner Lincoln and Clay streets, tonight at 7:30 o'clock. He has with him that remarkable film called "Through the Years from Yesterday."

This film was produced by the book publishers of the Methodist church and is a portrayal of the development of the publishing interests of the church from their small beginning a century ago to their present voluminous output of books and publications of various kinds. In this film you will see the first hand press that was used at Cincinnati after it had been carried across the eastern mountains and floated down the Ohio river on a flat boat. You will see Cincinnati as it looked one hundred years ago. You will see the first small building that was used as a publishing house. You will have the privilege of contrasting that building with the present commodious and modern plant which stands on Plum street between Fourth and Fifth. The great plant at 150 Fifth Avenue, New York City will also be seen. But these are only two or three of the interesting features you will see tonight at Manly. There will be no admission fee.

Mr. White will also have a splendid collection of the best books from which you can make your selections.

AUTO HITS DOG; TURNS OVER; TWO MEN ARE BADLY HURT

W. A. Gillespie, well known painter employed by Edward Treman and Turner Doney, contracting carpenter of 1116 Waller street were victims of a singular automobile accident Sunday morning about eight o'clock, when Doney's Ford roadster struck a dog near Clifford on Soloto Trail and turned over.

Gillespie suffered a broken right leg and a broken right wrist while Doney suffered a broken left collar bone and a deep cut on his head.

After the accident the dog that had caused it was nowhere to be found. Doney showed much courage during the hour following the accident for he helped in caring for Gillespie and even helped in the operating room at the hospital before the physicians noticed that he was not using his left hand and arm. An examination showed that his collar bone was broken.

Doney and Gillespie were on their way to Pileton where Gillespie expected to do some work today for James Price of this city.

The men were driving slowly and according to Doney were making only about eight miles an hour when they neared the N. & W. water tank at Clifford and Doney turned sharply to one side to keep from hitting the canine. The attempt was futile as one of the front wheels hit the dog and caused the machine to turn around and head for Portsmouth. In making the turn the car turned over on its side, wavered there a few seconds and then turned completely over. Doney says that as he lay on the brick paving he watched the machine waver and wondered which way it would fall.

He was soon on his feet and found Gillespie to be the worst injured. Dr. D. C. Coleman of Louisville was called and the men were brought to Hemstead hospital in Lynn's ambulance. Dr. Coleman being assisted by Dr. S. S. Hallerman in operating on Gillespie. Both bones were broken in his right leg three inches above the ankle and his right wrist was fractured. He also suffered a badly bruised right hip and a laceration of the left shin. After attending to Gillespie at the hospital they gave their attention to Doney who insisted on going to his home where the collar-bone was set and the leg and a half cut on the side of his head bandaged. He also suffered a cut on his left leg above the knee.

The machine suffered a broken windshield.

Gillespie who has been working for Mr. Brehmer for several years came here from Chillicothe.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, April 4.—Alfred Griffin, "Al G. Field," premier in American minstrelsy, died at his home here Sunday, his death resulting from Bright's disease. Born 72 years ago in Leesburg, Va., Mr. Field was educated in the common schools of Brownsville and Pittsburgh, Pa., later becoming interested in banking and farming and in 1886 entered the theatrical business, organizing a minstrel show which has operated continuously since that time.

Mr. Field was a former high national officer of the Elks and widely known in Masonic circles. The funeral will be held here Tuesday afternoon.

News of the passing away of genial, jovial Al G. Field will be learned of with sincere regret in Portsmouth.

Until the Grand Opera House was wiped out by fire several years ago, he and his famous minstrel were annual and welcome visitors to Portsmouth. Mr. Field had many warm, personal friends here as he did in every city he visited and his show was always assured capacity business here.

Mr. Field could always be relied upon to put on a clean show and his success lies in the fact that he always surrounded himself with real minstrel stars. He knew the value of having top-notchers in his company and it was said of him that he paid the largest salaries of any minstrel promoter on the road. For years and years Mr. Field always walked at the head of his daily parade and he was kept busy bowing to them and that friend, who would yell at him from the sidewalk. He carved a deep niche in the halls of minstrelsy, and the theatrical world loses one of its shining marks in his death.

To know Al G. Field was to be his friend. He never violated any trusts reposed in him, and his memory will endure as long as minstrelsy.

The funeral of Mr. Field will be held here Tuesday afternoon and will be in charge of the Knights Templar.

If you want to insure your car, or property of any kind, you would be pleased to do it for you. Office open evenings from 6 to 9 o'clock.

YOUNG GIRL FINDS RELIEF

Wants to Tell Other Girls All About It

Evansville, Ind.—"I am eighteen years old and have been bothered for several months with irregular periods. Every month my back would ache and I always had a cold and felt drowsy and sleepy. I work in a millinery shop and I went to work everyday, but felt stupid and would have such cramps. I had seen Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and had heard several women talk of it, so mother got me some. This Vegetable Compound is wonderful and it helped me very much, so that during my periods I am not now sick or drowsy. I have told many girls about it and would be glad to help anyone who is troubled with similar ailments."—STELLA LINWILER, 6 Second St., Evansville, Ind.

Some girls lead lives of luxury, while others toil for their livelihood, but all are subject to the same physical laws and suffer in proportion to their violation. When such symptoms develop as irregularities, headaches, backaches, bearing-down sensations and "the blues," girls should profit by Miss Linwiler's experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

Blanche Sweet

in "That Girl Montana"

From the novel by Marah Ellis Ryan

For Two Nights Starting Tonight the Eastland Theatre will Present what is considered the greatest Western picture ever made, "That Girl Montana," Marah Ellis-Ryan's great romance of the Golden West—See it.

Starting with tonight at the Eastland Theatre, Pathe Pictures will present the screen's greatest western drama "That Girl Montana," with Blanche Sweet and Mahlon Hamilton.

A Woman's Courage
 That girl, Montana, was a plucky kid. She was just a slip of a blonde doing fighting, her life's problems all by herself in a young and primitive country where the lust for gold stripped men of the thin veneer of civilization and showed up their coarser and baser natures.

The opening of the picture discloses Blanche Sweet in boy's clothes, a disguise forced upon her by her father, who forces her to rob stage coaches and cheat at cards. Once freed from him she struggles to live down her past and prove her right to the friendship of decent people. Intertwined with the adventure and daring is a charming romance between the girl and a man whose lips are sealed because of a foolish marriage.

A faithful adaptation of Marah Ellis-Ryan's novel, this Joseph D. Rapaport feature has the same tremendous appeal of the great outdoors, the red-blooded Northwest, and the fighting, courageous spirit of its heroine, that made the novel so popular.

Montana, along the Kootenai River, is the locale of "That Girl Montana." It is a mountainous country of great beauty and grandeur.

Robert Thorndyke, whose direction of "Half a Chance" heaped upon him the unstinted praise of trade and newspaper critics, directed "That Girl Montana." It further demonstrates that he is a master director of the vigorous, powerful, red-blooded, fighting, outdoor picture.

Herein he has visualized the realities of those days—no many years ago—when gold was found along the Kootenai. The evil and the goodness; the tragedy and the romance; the ugliness and the beauty of the country; the customs and the people, is vividly and truthfully portrayed.

 Earle Williams is in the role of Bob Bellamy in "Diamonds Adrift," the screen version of a thrilling tale of adventure and romance by Frederick L. Jackson. The athletic young star appeared to unusual advantage as the young Californian suddenly plunged into wild adventures in a small harbor city of Mexico. Many exclamations of admiration for the dashing and daring portrayal were heard in the theater, and friends of Earle Williams were deeply gratified, and new friends were made.

"Diamonds Adrift" is a remarkable production in many respects, and close students of motion picture methods will give the director, Chester Bonnet, great credit for his achievement in this work. He has produced striking effects which few directors, even in this day of intensive effort and striving toward supremacy, would have thought of. Provided with excellent material in the story itself, and a star admirably equipped to portray the impressive stellar role, as well as a supporting company splendidly adapted to the parts assigned, Bonnet has added materially to his already enviable record.

Katherine MacDonald, the American Beauty, opens a three-day engagement at the Columbia tonight. (Monday) in her latest picture, "Curtain."

At the Columbia Theatre, beginning tonight, Katherine MacDonald in her latest photoplay, "Curtain!" will be the attraction. "Curtain!" is a story of stage life and it is a picture of Rita, Vienna's delightful Saturday Evening Post story. It is a First National production.

In "Curtain!" Miss MacDonald plays the part of an actress who achieves a tremendous success as the star of a new play. She is wooed by a millionaire bachelor through a whirlwind courtship and finally marries him and gives up the stage.

Later—after she has become the mother of a boy, she discovers her husband is untrue to her—he having gone to Tia Juana with the actress who has taken her place as star. She returns to the stage, getting back her old place, and scores a tremendous hit. Later she finds real happiness, but how is a secret, the telling of which would spoil your enjoyment of the picture.

GEORGE BEBAN in ONE MAN IN A MILLION

distributed by ROBERTSON-COLE

Look! It Will Soon Be Here. For Three Nights Starting Thursday, the Eastland Theatre will Present George Beban in "One Man in a Million," a Humorous Page from Life Into Which Is Woven Love, Laughter and Romance. Our Guarantee that it is One of the Very Best.

Movie fans of the city are in for a treat when "One Man in a Million," the latest Robertson-Cole super-special release, starring the inimitable character actor, George Beban, opens at the Eastland Theatre Thursday for a run of three days. This new six-reel picture has been nothing short of a sensation wherever shown, and critics are on record as having declared it the greatest drama ever filmed.

The story of "One Man in a Million" has to do with the reward brought by kindness. Mr. Beban in the role of Lupino Delahunt, an humble and big-hearted Italian, becomes pined for a western town as the result of a good turn he performed for a secret service operative. From the very start, therefore, the picture carries the high interest which is always felt in animals and their many pranks. At the pound, Lupino finds Flora Valasco, a stenographer, whose heart is as big as his own. Her love for the kindly Italian grows with the days but she conceals it carefully.

A Belgian wail, adopted by Lupino plays a great part in the lives of Flora and Delahunt. All would have been well but for the arrival of the boy's mother who comes from Belgium in search of him. The big heart of Lupino takes the mother into the fold with Flora acting as chaperone. The little family therefore remains intact. Lupino makes a mistake when he finds his sex muddled and an accidental flower on his dresser. He believes the Belgian mother responsible when as a matter of fact Flora is the forming angel. Complications follow which almost result in disaster to the happiness of all.

It May Be So. Why is a wife called her husband's better half, dad? Crash, show: "I suppose it's because she isn't satisfied with splitting his salary fifty-fifty."—New York Times.

The Strand Will Present a Wonderfully Attractive Picture Tonight and Tomorrow, When It Will Show Charles Ray in an Entertaining Comedy-Drama, "Red Hot Cigarettes." Also Some Lively Short Subjects.

Charles Ray in his latest Thomas H. Ince production, "Red Hot Cigarettes," is the Paramount-Artcraft picture to be shown at the Strand theatre for two days beginning today.

The star appears as a young machinist, Ted Burke, and is employed in the great machine works of Peter Garton. Peter Garton takes him to his own home and becomes so attached to him that he tells his society sister that he will adopt the boy. The sister tries to introduce the boy into society and many laughable situations are presented.

When the boy goes to tell his sweetheart the good news he is surprised to find that she is not overjoyed. And when her four old Scotch grandfather finds out that Peter Garton is the boy's foster father he orders the boy from the house.

It began to look as if a sweet little romance would be nipped in the bud. When the youth secured his sweetheart's position as stenographer in the office of Peter Garton they did not let the old Scotchman know.

She was discharged by Garton and when the old Scotchman heard of it he flew into a rage and made his way to the Garton residence where the two old enemies were soon cooped in by the youthful lovers and finally forced to make-up and not interfere with romance. You are sure to enjoy this picture. Also "The Purple Riders."

Germany's heavy losses during the war have made it imperative that the mortality rate be reduced to the minimum while the country is getting back to normal. One move of the German authorities along this line is the construction of a school in Berlin where girls of marriageable age are taught domestics, including the proper care of infants, clothes making and some methods of curing illnesses. Whenever possible live babies are used by the classes for demonstrations of the proper care of infants. A doll is being used in the picture.

DO YOU CATCH COLD EASILY?
HOW TO AVOID IT

Colds are due to germs. No one can prevent the germs from getting into your nose and throat. But you can help keep plenty of strong, vigorous, "antibodies" in your blood to fight and kill off the nasty "cold germs" before they do you any harm.

To develop these germ destroying "antibodies" properly, you must have plenty of pure, rich, red blood and a strong, vigorous constitution—in fact, this is the best preventive against almost any disease.

If you are weak, nervous or run down, or subject to colds, take no chances. One day you may develop serious throat, bronchial or lung trouble or perhaps pneumonia, and you may go off like a shot. Therefore commence to enrich your blood and fortify yourself against "disease germs" today. To build more and better blood and make strong, or nervous, there is nothing superior to NUXATED IRON as it contains organic iron like the iron in your blood combined with a product representing the principal chemical constituent of active living nerve force for feeding the nerves. Nuxated Iron may therefore be said to be both a blood and a nerve food. It often increases the bodily and mental vigor, strength and endurance in two weeks' time.

Over 1,000,000 people are using it annually. It has been highly endorsed by former United States Senators, U. S. Army Generals, many physicians and prominent men. Even the Pope has mentioned it favorably in a communication to the Proprietor of the Pharmacy Normale de Paris.

Satisfaction guaranteed or the manufacturer will refund your money. Beware of substitutes. Look for the word "NUXATED" on every package and the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.

Lines to Be Remembered.
My father's principle was that none but enjoyments of pure occurrence were adequately prized; that neither young nor old could set a proper value on pleasures which they tasted every day.—Goethe in "Wilhelm Meister."

Valuable Jack Pine.
There are many qualities of the Jack Pine which recommend it for a continuous forest crop. It is extremely hardy and grows on the poorest soils. It reproduces better than any other conifer in eastern Canada as it is evidenced by the way it replaces other woods following cutting or fire. It grows rapidly and under natural conditions will attain pulpwood size in a shorter time than spruce or balsam.—Montreal Family Herald.

"THE AFTERNOON GAME"

Says Robins Do Not Eat Good Cherries

Deputy Game Protector Frank Voorhees sounds a warning to boys who have been shooting robins. The law protects the robin and other birds with the exception of the English sparrow. According to Game Protector Voorhees the robin does not eat cherries, as many persons believe, but takes the cherry that contains a worm and eats out the worm only. The robin only takes the worm-eaten cherry, or the over-ripe cherry laden with insects, according to Mr. Voorhees.

Henry Baumfause, who is supposed to have escaped from some state institution for the feeble minded, passed through Piketon Wednesday afternoon about three o'clock enroute to his home near Sedan. He was attired in a white duck suit such as are worn by patients at these institutions, and bareheaded. His hair was closely shaven, which would also indicate that he was an inmate of some institution. About a half hour after he passed through Piketon, two young men of this village, William Patterson and Russell Nessler, started in pursuit in Patterson's automobile. They stopped at Wakefield where they were joined by Walter Vulgamore, and just below Wakefield Baumfause was overtaken. By employing strategy which would do credit to Sherlock Holmes, the boys succeeded in enticing him into the machine. He was taken to Portsmouth and given over to Sheriff Ricker who lodged him in the county jail for safe keeping until it could be determined from where he escaped.

Hunter Is Building New Team

Manager Fred Hunter who will boss the Lansing team of the Central League this season has already signed 20 youngsters and is looking for more.

He will build an entirely new team in Lansing and probably will try out 30 or 40 players.

Pitchers In Poor Condition

Manager Pat Moran of the Reds is worried about his pitchers. With the opening of the season less than two weeks away, his pitching staff is in wretched condition. Rixey and Luque are in fairly good shape, but the other hurlers are rounding to form in a disappointing manner.

See Not Showing Much This Spring

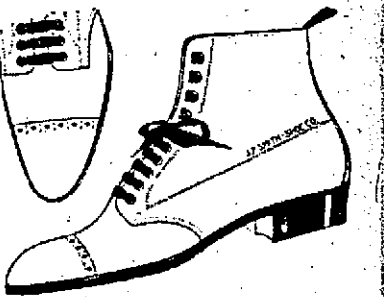

Outfielder Charley See has so far this spring been a big disappointment to Manager Moran. He has to fill the bill or Moran will be compelled to go in the open market for another outfielder.

He now has and has a wonderful chance to make good. He has to fill the bill or Moran will be compelled to go in the open market for another outfielder.

OXFORDS OR SHOES

For the man who wants a stylish shoe, but not extreme, a comfortable shoe that FITS and all the shoe goodness it is possible to get into a shoe, I want to personally recommend the Newgate — made of brown giant kangaroo, hand welted soles of the very best oak sole leather, solid leather insoles and heels — the cut showing an exact duplication of the shoe, not extreme, but a conservative shoe in every way — AAA's to B's — oxfords, ten, shoes, thirteen-fifteen.
